Blackwater.

We have experienced one of the deepest snows that has been for several years.

Rev. A. N. Joyner has just returned from Hopewell, Tenn.

I. C. Robinette, a traveling salesman, returned from Rogersville, Tenn., last week.

Rev. E. A. Robinette and others are conducting a good revival meeting at Blackwater this week. We trust that everlasting good will be done.

L. B. Stewart, E. E. Burchett, I. C. Robinette and Milton Robinette, of this place, discovered an unknown cave on G. W. Robinette's farm. They were out hunting one day and accidentally made a wonderful discovery that had been unnoticed for centuries. The hole is about four feet in diameter and goes straight down several hundred yards. The parties at once decided to get a rope and make a winch. So the work was completed, then Stewart and Robinette went down into the unknown darkness to search out the hidden parts of this cave but they did not go very far when they commenced to hear noise of all kinds. Seemingly they could hear vocal voices of death like sounds, they could hear water falling, splashing like that of the Niagara Falls, so the signal was given to those above, who were anxiously waiting to pull up the boys. They were safely landed to light again. They all stood around a few moments, each giving his opinion of what was going on. No one since has ever made such a daring leap of these two, so we departed leaving this cave to be mastered. Many one doubts this come to Flag Pond and we will show you the place.

GUARANTEE TO STOP ITCHING!

Just Apply ZEMO on that Maddening Itching—That'll Prove It.

That itching that drives you nearly wild, that eczema or skin blotch, will abate rapidly as you never before believed it possible, by the use of the new remedy, ZEMO.

ZEMO will be a surprise to you just as it has been a surprise to thousands who have already tried it. Your first use of ZEMO will bring instant relief, pain and itching, prickly heat, pimples, blanching, eczema, skin irritation or inflammation will stop.

Don't miss it for 25 cents. When you have proven with a 25-cent bottle how remarkable ZEMO is to your own satisfaction, then you can buy a 41 bottle, which contains six times as much as the 25-cent bottle.

CARR-HOGE.

An attractive wedding took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hoge, in Harvard Street, when their daughter Lulu became the bride of Mr. Daniel T. Carr, Princeton, W. Va. The marriage ceremony, which was witnessed by a limited number of guests, was performed by Rev. Wilmer P. Johnson, of St. Paul M. E. Church South, assisted by Rev. D. H. Carr, of Bluefield, W. Va., an uncle of the bridegroom. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of ivory satin and Irish lace. She wore a diamond pendant, the gift of bridegroom, and carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Robert H. Bruce, of Big Stone Gap, Va., who acted as matron of honor, wore a gown of cream satin and duchess lace. The bride's niece Miss Mary Virginia Bruce, was the flower girl. She wore a dainty lingerie frock, and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Dr. E. W. Horton, of West Virginia, acted as best man for Mr. Carr.

The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip in the South, which they will take before going to their future home in Princeton. Mr. Carr's traveling suit was of brown cloth, with hat and other appointments in harmony.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. M. V. Carr, mother of the bridegroom; Rev. D. H. Carr, of Bluefield, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Miller, of Princeton, W. Va.; Mr. Robert H. Bruce, of Big Stone Gap, Va.; Dr. E. W. Horton, Dr. W. H. Wallingford and Messrs. E. F. Branton and H. D. Karnes, of West Virginia.—Washington Post.

There is much truth in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment produced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Appalachia Items

W. H. Roberts and son, Carl, of Wine, and son, Rich, of Knoxville, spent the week-end in Appalachia.

Mrs. M. L. Stallard and son, Marion Smith, of Stonegap, left Sunday night for Louisville where they awaited Dr. Stallard who joined them Tuesday. From Louisville they will go direct to San Antonio, Texas, where they expect to spend the rest of the winter. Dr. Harry Smith, of Tom's Creek, came down Saturday night to see his mother and brother off for the west.

Miss Elizabeth Wyhn, who has been visiting in Appalachia and Norton, left Sunday night for her home in Jonesville.

Messieurs J. P. Wolfe and E. F. Burges, of Big Stone Gap, were shopping at Ford and McCord's Monday.

Dr. J. J. Lloyd, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church at Big Stone Gap, will hold services at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning, and will baptize little Bob Morrison.

The population of Appalachia has been materially increased during the past week by several infants of more or less tender age.

S. J. Montgomery, Principal of Tom's Creek High School, who has been spending the holidays with relatives in Richmond, stopped off in Appalachia Sunday enroute to Tom's Creek.

Mrs. C. G. Duffy, of Stonegap, was shopping in Appalachia Monday.

M. H. Young, general passenger agent for E. & N. R. R., spent Sunday and Monday in Appalachia arranging routes for the stalled party who are interested in investing in Texas real estate.

The young men's bible class organized at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning elected Prof. J. P. Bralke teacher, and Ross McOickle assistant. Mr. Monzel was elected secretary and treasurer. The class will meet at nine thirty every Sunday morning. A cordial invitation is extended to every man in Appalachia to become a member.

Another assistant is badly needed in the Appalachia High School, the two grammar grade teachers, Miss Graham and Bruce, each having one large grade and one section of another. Not only are the teachers overworked, but they are unable to do themselves justice with so many classes and unable to give the necessary attention to the instruction of these classes. Application has been made by Prof. Bralke for another teacher for the Sixth grade, but the Board has not yet reached a decision.

One poor little half starved, poisoned mouse nearly demoralized the McCord household Monday morning. Chairs, tables and other elevated positions were all occupied by the feminine contingent.

From Roda.

We are jubilant at Roda over the bright prospects before us.

The contract has been let for forty-five new houses.

The Company has made some purchases of motors and electrical machinery to enlarge the output of coal.

Everything bids for a prosperous New Year.

The Public School has resumed labor with a large attendance.

Mrs. C. G. Duffy and daughter, Alma, were visiting relatives in Fannington Gap last week.

Miss Elizabeth Collins has been quite ill for the past week but is better at this writing.

A. B. Smith the stable boss has returned from a pleasure trip to Petersburg, W. Va.

Rev. Anderson filled his regular appointment here last Sunday.

The two large loads of candy, nuts, apples and oranges was a beautiful treat for the children of Roda Town.

The Christmas entertainments were a great success and were enjoyed by all. Long live the faithful perpetrators of these festivities that serve to make us forget that we owe a cent in the world and gives us real joy for one whole hour at a time.

From Stonegap.

Mrs. C. G. Duffy was shopping in Appalachia Saturday.

J. M. Young, boss carpenter, has moved his family back to Stonegap.

Rev. Shuler filled his regular appointment here Sunday night.

Ralph Anderson returned one day last week to his school at Grundy. His sister, Virginia, went back with him.

Paul Gundry left Monday morning for Staunton, Va., where he is in school.

Mrs. Barstow and family returned last week from a long visit with their people up north.
